

Code of Conduct

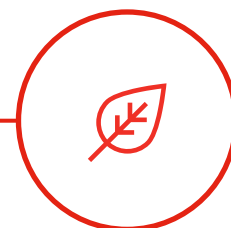

GEOTEST Ltd. is a leader in all areas of the geosciences – and beyond. Our eight business fields are as diverse as we are: from site development, to geoinformatics, to natural hazards, environment and contamination.

GEOTEST was founded in 1962 and has since earned an excellent reputation in its fields of business. It is therefore a sought-after expert both at home and abroad. More than 200 employees from various disciplines work together at 7 locations in Switzerland – across locations and business fields.

GEOTEST pursues sustainable development, giving equal consideration to ecological, social and economic aspects. In addition, GEOTEST maintains sustainable and long-term relationships with its stakeholders. GEOTEST's projects and solutions have a lasting impact and are designed to stand the test of time.

What unites us? The determination to drive forward complex projects and tackle challenging problems collaboratively, honestly and with curiosity. Our work is characterised by high quality, innovation, customer focus and mutual trust. As a result, our clients benefit from customised and comprehensive solutions.

And thus more security, sustainably.

This Code of Conduct defines the ethical principles and business standards of GEOTEST and applies to all areas of operation:

GEOTEST undertakes to conduct its business in accordance with high ethical standards and always works in compliance with the applicable laws and regulations in the respective area of operation.

GEOTEST has a zero-tolerance policy towards fraud, bribery and corruption.

GEOTEST is committed to complying with the international principles of the United Nations Global Compact and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

GEOTEST is committed to working in an environmentally, socially and economically responsible manner.

GEOTEST is committed to responsible, equal opportunity and fair practices in the recruitment of employees and promotes these through internal and external training.

The safety and health of employees are our top priority.

GEOTEST is committed to confidentiality in all interactions with customers.

Data or reports shall only be published after prior agreement with the customer.

Conflicts of interest or even the appearance of a conflict must be avoided and handled with care.

All GEOTEST employees are obliged to comply with this Code of Conduct in full at all times.
